

If you want to receive this newsletter in French, click here

CEP Conference 2011 on Electronic Monitoring takes shape

At the preparatory meeting for the upcoming Electronic Monitoring conference in 2011, Mike Nellis, Professor of Criminal and Community Justice at Strathclyde University, was able to speak to CEP about the developments around Electronic Monitoring. "The conference - which is sponsored by EM manufacturers - is unique because no other topic has featured as regularly and systematically in CEP discussions."

Read more

Second issue of EuroVista is founder John Raine's last

The second issue of EuroVista, the tri-annual journal on probation matters in Europe, has recently been issued in print and online. In this edition John W. Raine hands the responsibility of his editorship on to Prof. Rob Canton and Dr. Gerhard Ploeg, after eight years of service. Alongside the regular items, articles on the Probation Rules, the potential of probation in Europe, offender rehabilitation, mentoring, managing risk and the financial crisis make it an issue which is not to be missed.

EuroVista website

CEP in progress: Board Meeting results

Last month, the 72nd CEP Board Meeting took place in Utrecht, The Netherlands. It was the first meeting of the new Board and we would therefore like to introduce the Board and inform you about the new composition of the Board. The meeting convened on the 13th and 14th of October 2010. CEP members have a 'link member' in the Board: you can contact him or her at any time and they will follow up regularly as well.

Read more

Richard Pickering reflects upon the TPVR and RIRP conference in London

It was an honour for Richard Pickering, Head of NOMS Security Group, to be asked to co- chair a conference on violent extremist offenders in prison and probation. The conference was by over 100 researchers and practitioners from across Europe. "Although the agenda is fluid and external factors change all the time, we know that the risks are high. The speakers and workshops at this conference have helped us identify the deficits and emergent areas of work to manage those risks, an important step towards developing our work in the future."

Read more

CEP Progress Report – January 2010 to October 2010

As a result of the General Assembly in Malaga, CEP will publish every six months a Progress Report in the Members Section of the CEP website. The Progress Report gives an overview of the activities of CEP divided into the three strategic goals of CEP: to unite, to professionalise and to raise the profile of probation. Via the red/amber/green method CEP members can see quickly if CEP is 'on track' in realising the goals it has set itself in its annual plan of the current year.

Go to the Members Section

Recommendations GA 2010 about future developments

During the General Assembly in Malaga, the CEP members have expressed their ideas in 3 separate working groups about the topics they think the Board should pay attention to during the new term.

The Board has discussed the recommendations of the GA during its first meeting of the new term. The Board has welcomed the majority of the suggestions as a confirmation that the 3 year plan as presented at, and approved by, the GA is in line with the wishes as expressed in the recommendations.

Read more

CEP publishes Annual Report 2009

On an annual basis, CEP presents an account of the activities for the previous year. In this document, which is our first Annual Report, we outline our achievements for 2009. It was a challenging and exciting year for CEP. President Marc Cerón: "I hope that you will find information of interest to you and at the same time that you get a sense of the enthusiasm and commitment of CEP's Staff and Board."

CEP Annual Report 2009

Miscellaneous News

At the offices, CEP regularly receives (e)mail on events, publications and developments in the field of probation in Europe and even beyond. As some of these items may be of interest of our member organizations, CEP brings you a selection of this news.

In this article you will find information on European Commission criminal justice grants, CEP Board member Eric Morinière on Euradio Nantes and several new publications.

Read more

Visit our website:
www.cep-probation.org

Contact us?
Postbus 8215
NL-3503 RE, Utrecht, The Netherlands communication@cep-probation.org

If you don't want to receive this newsletter, please reply to communication@cep-probation.org